Topic: The Sermon on the Mount/The Beatitudes
Matthew 5:1-12

Sermon on the Mount
It is a collection of Jesus’ teachings, including the Beatitudes. It shows what Jesus expects of His followers.

Beatitudes – a short saying about what Jesus taught on “happiness, blessing or divine favor. They describe the good ways on how to live happily and be blessed.

The Beatitudes are the teachings of Jesus about true happiness. Jesus is inviting us to enjoy the company of other people.

They tell us about the Good News of the kingdom of God and how the members of God’s kingdom should live.
Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
“Jesus is inviting us to be humble.”

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
“Jesus is inviting us ask for forgiveness.”

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
“Jesus is inviting us to be generous.”

Blessed are those, who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
“Jesus is inviting us to seek God.”

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
“Jesus is inviting us to love God and others.”

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
“Jesus is inviting us to be like little children.”

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called the sons of God.
“Jesus is inviting us to loves our enemies.”

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
“Jesus is inviting us to live a good life.”

Blessed are you when people insult you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.
“Jesus is inviting us trust God.”

That in all things God may be glorified!
